Kurian Joseph, J.

Parties along with their children are present. Thanks to the sincere efforts taken by the parties, thanks to the cooperation extended by the learned counsel appearing on both sides and thanks to the effective mediation at the hands of Adv.Mrs.K.Girija, it is heartening to note that the entire disputes between the petitioner/wife and respondent/husband have been amicably settled. This court had been following up their reunion and we are happy to note that they have foregone and forgotten the past and they are leading a happy life with their children. In that view of the matter, it is submitted that the petitioner does not want to pursue Crime No.583/07 of Kottiyam police station. We direct the Sub Inspector of Police/Investigating Officer of Kottiyam police station to drop the investigation in the said crime.

2. In view of the strenuous efforts taken by the conciliator Smt.Girija for quite a few days, though such efforts cannot be compensated in terms of money, the parties willingly submit that at least a nominal amount may be fixed by the court by way of remuneration to the conciliator. Accordingly, we fix an amount of Rs.10,000/-. The amount will be paid to Smt.Girija through the counsel. We record our deep appreciation for the efforts taken by the conciliator and also the learned counsel, who sincerely cooperated with the reconciliation of the matrimonial dispute between the petitioner and the respondent.

3. The parties who are present before us submit that since they have settled the entire disputes between them, the cases between them before the Family Court, Kottayam at Ettumanoor and Family Court, Kollam need not be proceeded with. In view of the settlement of the disputes between the parties and the submission as above, the Family Court, Kottayam at Ettumanoor need not proceed with O.P.Nos.752 and 753 of 2007, pending between the parties herein. Those cases shall stand struck off. The Family Court, Kollam also need not proceed with M.C.249/07 and O.P.618/07, pending between the parties herein. Those cases also shall stand struck off.

The writ petition is disposed of as above.

KURIAN JOSEPH, JUDGE.

HARUN-UL-RASHID, JUDGE.
